

National Spotted Saddle Horse Association
Trail Horse Recognition Program

In an effort to promote the Spotted Saddle Horse, the NSSHA has developed a program to recognize a horse's time spent on the trail.

*Log sheets are due on or before December 1st of each year. Awards will presented each January at the Annual NSSHA Banquet.

*Hours will accumulate throughout the span of the horse's life and awards will be presented at each level of participation.

Trail Horse Recognition Program Guidelines for Participation

- Participants must be a member of NSSHA for the current year, and all subsequent years, of participation in the program. The NSSHA Annual Membership fee is $50.00.
- Enrolled horses in the program must be NSSHA registered, or must submit an application for registration at the time of enrollment in the program.
- Annual Enrollment Fee is due and payable each year. This fee is $10.00 per horse, per year
- A log must be kept showing rider's name, horse's name, dates, locations and time on the trail. A participant cannot log more than 6 hours per day.
- Triple hours will be awarded for any NSSHA sponsored ride. Log sheets must be signed and/or stamped by a NSSHA affiliate at the ride.
- Double hours will awarded for any ride location open to the public such as Circle E, Big South Fork, 4-J, or such like rides. This also includes Benefit rides. All such rides must be verified by the Ride's Host signature or stamp.
